SHUT OFF INFORMATION

Water District #1 of Midland County Rules and Regulations section 6.04 and 7.00 reads as follows:

Section 6.04 Upon discontinuance of water service at the request or for the convenience of a customer or for violation of Section 7.01 below there shall be a shut-off fee established by the Trustees. Upon the resumption of the water service there shall be a turn-on fee as established by the Trustees. Both the shut-off and turn-on fee must be paid before the water service is restored.

Section 7.00 Discontinuation of Service

Section 7.01 Water service may be discontinued without notice to the customers for any of the following reasons:

- a) For repairs to any water main, fire hydrant, customer service connection or associated appurtenance.
- b) For lack of supply.
- c) For violation by the customer of any ordinance, regulation or rule of the District, constituent municipalities or State of Michigan directly relating to the water supply service including piping, meters, meter fixtures, valves and valve boxes.
- d) For continued inaccessibility to the customer's premises for the purpose of meter reading or system inspection/maintenance.
- e) For nonpayment of any water billing from the District.
